"AMERICAN RESTLESSNESS" — T.E.R.
Fri., Mar. 9, 1883
p. 3

Dr. Edward EGGLESTON's
illustrated paper in the March CENTURY, in his series on colonial history, describes "The Migrations of American Colonists," and alludes as follows

to an American trait:

From the beginning, the Americans have been a migratory people. New Englanders, as we have seen, planted themselves in Westchester and on Long Island, came by throngs into E. Jersey, and migrated to the more southern colonies. So, Virginia helped to people Md. & N. C., migrated north to N. Y., and even before the Rev., began to look wistfully over the mountain barrier into the great interior valley. N. Y. Dutch migrated to S. C.; some settled in Maine, Pa. & Md.; while Pennsylvanians, excited by fear of Indian massacre during the French wars, occupied much of the mountain & "piedmont" regions of the colonies to the South. Tis said that of 3500 militia of Orange Co., in N. C., during Rev., every man was native of Pa. ...... (See newspaper for entire article)

BAPTIST CHURCHES
Tues., Aug. 12, 1879
p. 2

"Baptist Churches"
by J. C. BECK, M.D.
First church in Am. was organized 1639 - Rev. Roger WILLIAMS was member. In previous articles, I have detailed early history of Flat Rock & others prior to 1823. In 1822, a strong desire was felt to have enough churches in the "New Purchase" to organize an association, & among those formed was SHARON CHURCH on Clifty, which was organized, perhaps at Samuel NELSON's Jan. 1, 1823. There was a division in 1833, & 1st records are lost, but records are tolerable fair.

Baptists, in early days, controlled the elections in this county. Their preachers were self-sustaining, receiving nothing from the congregation. Mignon BOAZ was pastor of Flat Rock Church for 25 yrs. He was unlettered, and his wife, (who was a dau. of Elijah POPE) would read to him his text and hymn on Sun. a.m. till he had it committed to memory and he would fill his appointments all over the county.

BARTHOLOMEW CO. OLD SETTLERS

Mon., Aug. 11, 1879
p. 2

Old pioneers & early settlers are rapidly passing away. Ephraim DAVIS d. 4th of this month. Tunis QUICK can tell of the early postmasters of Columbus, & 1st house built, as he was there. Elias COX can tell the incidents in his Uncle POPE's life, & the early struggle of his cousin-in-law, Mignon BOAZ. It is important to settle the facts of history which will hereafter be deleted. The organization of Flat Rock, Bethel & other churches, is preserved, but dates of Sharon & Clifty are in doubt, & only tradition survives to give a date to the 1st, in 1823, & the other, 10 yrs. later. Get out all old settlers. I will bring an old Bible, oldest in the County. Have grandmother Isabel STOUT from Moore's Vineyard there.

QUICKs, BOAZs, ROBERTSONs & COXs are so intermarried -- a riddle. The RAYs, JONES', HERRINGs & COMERs intermarried. Your sketch on Solomon STOUT, by son, Nathan, is incorrect in 2 places. 1st, he was a widower when he visited Ind. Terr. in 1811. His 1st wife, Miss MARSHALL d. a short time previously. 2ndly, Mr. WILSON wasn't 1st merchant of Cols. & Barth. Co. 1st were Jos. WILLIAMSON & Lemuel FRAZIER. The 1st, Jos. WILLIAMSON, was postmaster of Cols. before Ira GROVER & resigned in favor of Ira GROVER & m'd GROVER's sister, Ellen, on Apr. 6, 1824 - m'd by Elijah POPE in the Christian Church. Elijah POPE was the grandfather of Elias COX & Simeon BOAZ. Elijah POPE's daus. marrying Joseph COX & Mignon BOAZ. I am related to the ROBINSONs, VAN SKIKEs, etc.... Mr. Joseph ROBINSON & his wife, Rachael, were the founders of the ROBINSON family. (NOTE by Jane F. Murphy: The correct spelling is ROBERTSON, and you will note that Mr. Beck used the correct spelling later in this article.) While visiting the CLIFTY CHAPEL graveyard in July, 1876, I looked through & found the grave of Rachael ROBERTSON, Sr. & I involuntarily planted a "live forever" on her grave. She was the mother of 17 children - all lived & m'd. Henry was the youngest, being my beloved bro.-in-law. A grandson of Jonathan MOORE m'd my niece-in-law.

BARTHOLOMEW, Gen. Joseph - Portrait D.E.R.
Fri., Feb. 11, 1881
p. 4

Letter to Geo. PENCE from Gen. BARTHOLOMEW's son, Lodi, Wisc. "Yours of the 24th inst. is before me, Jan. 28, 1881, making inquiry relative to the portrait of Gen. Joseph BARTHOLOMEW. I have the desired portrait & feel to have a just pride in loaning it to you to have a copy placed in your elegant courthouse in the county, taking its name from my honored father. You ask if the portrait could be purchased. I would say it is an heirloom above price. The portrait is nearly life size and in tolerably good preservation. Awaiting your pleasure and directions I am, with sincere regards, yours truly, W. M. BARTHOLOMEW." .... It is thought, to copy the Portrait, would cost about $60.

A portrait of General Joseph BARTHOLOMEW hangs in the 1st Nat'l Bank. Asst. Cashier, George PENCE, got it from J. T. NEW of Clifty twp., who says it's been in the family as long as he can remember. Bears date of 1826. Col. DAILY, who was well acquainted with Gen. BARTHOLOMEW, says, while not a very good portrait, is evidently him. It is probable a copy will be ordered taken from it by the Commissioners at their next session.

Death of The Millionaire of Bartholomew County
Brief Sketch of His Life's Work, Etc.

The subject of this sketch was born near Richmond, Va., on the 31st of Jan., 1801. His early life ran in the natural channel of others of his years, amid the scenes and experiences incident to the lives of those about him. When childhood gave place to maturer years, he began life marked with the characteristics that have always formed a part of his after years. He at once began to provide for himself, and early set about to learn some trade by which he could serve his interests in this respect. He chose the carpenter's trade, and for some time applied himself to the labors it demanded. He at first began his labors near Bowling Green, Ky., but afterwards, in 1821, came to this county, in which he has ever since resided. He began life alone and unaided, and for his support relied entirely upon his own energies. At the death of his father he took nothing from the estate, saying that there was enough to support his mother during her life, and that he was more able to support himself than was she. After his removal to Barth. Co. he was united in marriage to Miss Amelia SMITH, and at that time he had already acquired an independence, and began investments in real estate. Eight children were born to him, four of whom are now living, and he lived to be the grandfather of twenty children. His life was devoted to the management of his own affairs, and was little (if any) given to public service. In his private enterprises he was always alone; never formed any partnerships, and always managed his own business, which pertained largely to real estate, farm and city property, loaning money, etc. He never took kindly to stocks in corporations, nor indulged in hazardous speculations. He was one of the first stockholders in the First National Bank in this place, and a Director of the same since its organization; was vice president for some time and until elected president, in May, 1880. His money was made principally from his investments in property. He never allowed his money to be idle, but always kept it in use, either in investments or on loans. His wealth was the result of a life-time of close application to business, good judgment in regard to the investments in which he engaged, and prudence in taking care of that which he made. His capacity for managing his business increased with the accumulation of his property, and while his health was unimpaired he had all the details of his business well in hand, and seemed to manage it all with as much ease as when in the prime of life. He was honorable in all things, and rigidly honest in his dealings, making his transactions conform to strict business rules. He was very indulgent to those indebted to him; never resorted to the courts only in the protection of his rights; and it is quite likely that no other like amount of business has ever been transacted with so little litigation. His wealth is considered to be about one million of dollars, and will not fall much under that estimate. He leaves no will, so far as known. Has always said that he wished his property divided equally among his children by agreement. His general health up to his last illness has been good, and the burden of his years seemed to lie lightly upon him. His age rendered him too weak to survive his last sickness, and at 10 o'clock p.m., April 30, he laid down his life peacefully and without pain. On the day before his death he was out on the streets, but a congestive chill in the evening bore him off, and his death, although sudden, was not unexpected. The following is a short sketch of his life as given by himself to the "Democrat" Oct. 2d, 1879: Francis J. Crump was born at Nigger-Foot, Hanover county, Va., Jan. 31, 1801, and is consequently now nearly 78 years old. Henry Clay was born near the same place. When a boy, Mr. Crump was apprenticed to a Mr. Thomas WOOD, carpenter and joiner, which trade he learned, and at the end of his apprenticeship emigrated to Lexington, Ky., and in 1821 emigrated to Ind., settling in this co. and city, where he has lived ever since. He was married at the age of 25 yrs. to Amelia SMITH, near Jonesville, Wayne twp., and the result was 8 ch., four of whom are still living. His wife died some 25 yrs. ago. His father lived to be 61 and his mother 83 yrs. of age.

pike, wished to celebrate her birthday on last Mon. Being election day, knew she couldn't get her sons simply by inviting them. As husband is quite poorly at times, she had it understood among the women-folks that they tell their husbands on Mon. a.m. that their father was quite sick. James R. hastened to Newbern to vote, but vision of his dying father hastened him to his father's bedside. Seing his father in the barn yard - invited in - saw family and long table - saw point and realized he was victim of a plot.

p. 2

Letter from Smith D. JONES, Winfield, Kans., in answer to article in D.E.D. of Sept. 30 regarding tombstone on LONG farm with name of Eli GUTHERIE. "I personally was axquainted with him and know that he d. and was buried on farm then owned by himself and a younger bro., Corbley GUTHERIE. Farm was 1st owned by their father, also buried on the farm, Archibald GUTHERIE. He selected burying ground on W part of the farm, planting 4 apple trees in a square. Farm has changed hands several times and only 1 apple tree left to mark the burying place. Ground has been cultivated over for several yrs. Eli has only 1 remaining sister living , now at Taylorsville. If alive, she is quite an aged widow, name of Mary GROVES. Thomas S. JONES was his bro.-in-law and also lives in Taylorsville. I was raised in Nineveh twp. abt 3 mi. N of sd farm. In 1851, I moved to Dewitt Co., Ill. and in 1878, came to Kansas. Am 64 yrs of age - live in Cowley Co., Kans. nr Southern border of the State, 9 mi. SW of Winfield in Beaver twp. Other Barth. Co. people here are R. S. TANNEHILL, J. D. HAMMOND, C. C. On last Sun., out on Isaac LONG's place, in Union twp., a tombstone was found bearing the following inscription: "Eli GUTHRIE was born June the 18th 1807. Age 31, decesd May 18th 1838 and left a dear Wife and two Sisters to lament after the decesd." The stone was nearly covered in the earth. It is remarkable on account of the name not being known to any one now residing in that locality.

p. 4

Joseph HART emigrated from Blount Co., Tenn. & settled on Clifty, 5 mi. E of Cols., in Oct., 1821. 5 sons came with him, the eldest of whom was Gideon B., who was 1st sheriff of Barth. Co., & for many yrs., school commissioner. The gathering of Jos. Hart descendants took place yesterday at the res. of Mrs. Nancy PENCE, in this city. There were present: James H. HART & son, of Ill.; Rev. Chas. C. HART & wife of Southern Ohio. These are sons of Jos. HART. The only dau. of Jos. HART, Mrs. Elizabeth TROTTER of Clarke Co., now 80 yrs of age, was too feeble to leave home, but her family was represented by her son & grandson. 4 daughters of Thomas HART & parts of their families, residing in Ind., were present. Of the ch. of Gideon B. HART, there were present, Mrs. PENCE and all her family except 2 sons, now in Colorado. Mrs. Elizabeth BRADEN & dau., of Laurence, Kans.; the daughters of Newton JONES, accompanied by Mr. & Mrs. JONES: Rev. Wm. T. HART & family, from Northern Ohio; J. Edw. HART & family, editor of the New Martinsville Messenger, W. Va., were present, making 42 in all. Letters were read from friends in E. Tenn., from Samuel HART, of Miss.; Lafayette & Charles PENCE, of Colorado, also from Hattie TROTTER & Ida THOMPSON, of MO. Information was received from friends in S. C., Fla., & from Gideon B. HART, Jr., of Mo. A very large portion of this company was entertained at the elegant res. of Mrs. PENCE, whose heart is much larger than her spacious residence. The gathering in her parlor at 3 p.m. yesterday was opened by reading the Scriptures, singing & prayer, & cont'd 1½ hrs. A resolution to hold another reunion at this place, 5 yrs. from this time, was unamimously adopted; also a unanimous vote of thanks to Mrs. PENCE & her family for their generous hospitality on this occasion. The company then sang "Praise God from Whom all blessings flow," & were dismissed with the benediction. The tribe will picnic at Sand Hill on Sat. The finale was melons dispensed by the generous hand of Albert TROTTER.

Sept. 5, 1881, p. 1

Mr. Gideon B. HART, wife & dau., Mr. & Mrs. J. D. THOMPSON & Mrs. Col. TROTTER & son, all of Breckenridge, Mo., arrived this a.m. to take part.

METHODIST HISTORY
By Rev. W. W. HIBBEN
D.E.D.
Wed., Nov. 26, 1879
p. 1

Rev. HIBBEN states he was on Columbus Circuit in 1836 when there was only 1 Church edifice in town - CAMPBELLITES. (Editor of the paper thought him mistaken) Methodists had 1 small class, James LOVE, leader, a tanner, his wife, a MC QUEEN. Class met at his house. The tannery stood where the PALLAS THEATER stood, & at the schoolhouse. Jim HOBBS, now of Columbus, raised the tunes. He was not a member, but his wife was. Some other members: Mother GRAVES, a mile out of town, over Hawcreek; the GLANTON family; Mrs. GUINN, nee MITCHELL; BUNNELLS; Mrs. Elisha P. JONES. W. TERRELL expelled an old Bro. BROWN for writing love-letters to a girl. W. TERRELL was a local deacon, Nathan FAIRCHILD, who
